

A SALARY CHECK HELD UP.

A Board of Education Problem Awaiting a Solution.

Pay for the Month of July Claimed by Secretary Rodrick and His Predecessor—Comment on the Appointment of the Former.

Within the past month there has been a good deal of comment over the election of Walter F. Rodrick as Secretary of the Board of Education to succeed Major H. H. Twombly. Not only has the appointment itself been criticized by prominent business men, but the alleged method used in bringing about the appointment have been made the subject of unfavorable remarks. The fact has leaked out that while there were twelve other applicants for the position, some of them well endorsed by the leading men of the city, the name of Mr. Rodrick alone was considered in connection with the office.

Comment on the subject extends not only to the methods used to appoint Mr. Rodrick, but to the manner in which the former occupant of the office was "frozen out," to use a common expression. The regulating and reorganizing of the public school system provided that it should be composed of two branches in the executive department—that which was purely educational and that which pertained to the business side of the school. The business end of the matter is under the control of the secretary and the educational details are left to the Superintendent of Education and his two assistants.

The by-laws of the Board, in defining the duties of the secretary, prescribe that he shall be the chief executive officer and shall have entire control of the office forces. This was a new departure from the old plan and was calculated to increase the prestige of the office of secretary of the Board by taking him out from under the direct supervision of the Superintendent.

It is alleged that this proved a source of friction between the Superintendent and the secretary during the year. It is stated that Major Twombly was inclined to insist upon his rights under the rules, and that Superintendent Stuart was inclined to dispute the point. Major Twombly, it is said, earnestly endeavored to carry out the law and the instructions of the Board, and the story goes that Superintendent Stuart as assiduously sought to make his influence and authority felt. This led to friction.

As to the methods used in naming a successor to Major Twombly, it is stated that everything was cut and dried for the appointment of Mr. Rodrick, even before Major Twombly resigned. Rumor has it that upon the night that the old secretary's resignation was offered, Dr. Richard Kingsman arose and moved that Mr. Rodrick be appointed to succeed him for Twombly. The resolution being made to such hasty action, it is said that the matter was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means, composed of General Boynton, James C. Bailey, and Gen. George Harris. Before the committee was taken up by the committee, the names of twelve men were sent in, as follows: H. O. Hine, James E. West, Harry Y. Dornier, Harrison Dingman, G. A. Lyon, B. Bryan, Clifford H. Howard, R. A. Church, P. F. Schrader, R. W. Murch, G. L. Peckham, and H. H. Burroughs.

Mr. Hine, who was connected formerly with the Washington Y. M. C. A., was strongly endorsed by the support of S. W. Woodward, John B. Lerner, and Commissioner Macfarland. Harry Y. Dornier, the former President of the Board, James E. West, Clifford Howard, and practically all the others had endorsed nearly as strong.

It is alleged that Mr. Rodrick was endorsed by Dr. Kingsman, and it is understood that Dr. Kingsman secured the endorsement of a majority of the Committee on Ways and Means, and of the entire Board of Education, pledging five of them to vote for his name before the applications of the candidates named were considered or even thought of. It is stated that the Committee on Ways and Means was called to meet at General Boynton's office, and that the meeting was held on the evening of the 24th inst. It is also said that when General Boynton arrived at the meeting he was presented with a paper endorsing Mr. Rodrick as secretary, containing the names of the seven members of the Board.

General Harris, it is said, took the matter up, and it was decided that the matter should be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

These circumstances, the recommendation of the Committee on Ways and Means endorsing Mr. Rodrick, and the fact that the Board and he was elected with two even voting votes, those of General Harris and Mrs. Francis. A rather interesting sequel to the appointment of Mr. Rodrick as secretary came to light yesterday at the District Building. When the resignation of Major Twombly was acted on by the Board of Education a motion was passed that he be allowed thirty days' leave. This action was taken by the Board while in session and is said to have been inspired by a sense of appreciation of the value of the services of Major Twombly for eleven months. A day or two afterward certain members of the Board started a motion to rescind the action referred to and to withdraw the thirty days' leave granted the outgoing secretary.

Accordingly a paper was drawn up and sent around to the members of the Board for their signatures. It is stated that it received the approval of five members of the Board. The law, however, stipulates that action of the Board shall be in regular session with a quorum present. Therefore, it is questioned in some quarters. Some days ago Major Twombly was called to the District Building to sign a check for the holding up of the check for the secretary of the Board of Education, and a reference of the matter to the Committee on Ways and Means.

SUMMER STUDY FINISHED.

Greenleaf Vacation School Holds Commencement Exercises.

Commissioner Macfarland Makes a Laudatory Address to Principal and Pupils—Parents in Attendance Join in the Congratulations.

At the conclusion of the commencement exercises of the Greenleaf Vacation School, held last night in the Jefferson School, the principal, Mr. H. H. Twombly, tendered to Ray Riordan, principal of the school and the originator of the vacation school project. Members of the Board of Education present took advantage of the opportunity to express their appreciation of the devotion, enthusiasm and self-sacrifice, and of the successful results of his work, and parents of scholars pressed his hand and expressed their thanks for his assistance in caring for their children during the summer months. A most unique and characteristic entertainment was rendered, mostly with talent supplied from the school. The entertainment closed with remarks by Mr. Riordan, principally in the nature of advice to the parents.

The programme was inaugurated with the laying in full view of the audience of telegraph and telephone lines by puppets, messages sent over the wires being typed by the children. Phonograph songs, the instrument manipulated by the pupils; calisthenics and military drills, recitations, some in excellent dialect, by the children; music by the Zola Band, assisted by the Apollo Club, and those declared to be under the control of capital. A bid for farmers' votes was made by declaring that their economic interests are the same as wage workers, but the attack raised such a storm that it was struck out and referred to a special committee for revision.

The Committee on Constitution reported this evening and presented the name of the "Socialist Party" for the new organization. Many of the delegates wanted the word "revolutionary" in the name, and others wanted it called the "International Socialist party," but the committee explained that its object was to get rid of the word "Democratic" in the name of the party, and the report was finally approved.

The more intelligent delegates feel that much time is being wasted, and they would have no objection to the party not afraid that the radical element would run things with a high hand. A national secretary is to be elected and a place selected for the party headquarters, and at least another day will be required.

NOT A PATERNON ANARCHIST.

No Trace of Any Man Named Gallotti Found.

PATERSON, N. J., July 31.—The Anarchists in this city were much excited today over the report that an attempt had been made on the life of the Queen Dowager of Portugal by a man named Gallotti, who was said to be an Anarchist from Paterson and a friend of Bresci, who killed the Queen's brother a year ago. A great many rumors were about this city today about the man who attacked the Queen. It was said that he formerly lived here and that he had worked in the Paterson silk mill. Enquiry fails to show any trace of the man in this city.

None of the Anarchists, known Gallotti, thought the name given in Switzerland might be wrong, but all the Anarchists spoke up on the subject, saying that he was not from Paterson. Pedro Gallotti, says that he does not believe that the man is a Patersonian and he says that he certainly did not sail with Bresci.

The Anarchists here are apparently hoarse in their denials. William Bresci, who killed the King of Italy a year ago, the Anarchists here do not hesitate in telling all they know about him and his antecedents. Prosecutor Emley says that no information was sent from the authorities here regarding any Anarchists in Europe. He expressed the opinion that it was time steps were taken to break up the meetings of the Anarchist group that appears to have found a home in this city.

THE GOVERNMENT RECEIPTS.

They Exceed Expenditures in July $15,340.

Receipts before the end of the month. The July receipts from both customs and internal revenue were both large. Customs receipts were $21,252.92, and the internal revenue receipts, $23,338.19, while the expenditures were $6,912.81, leaving a surplus of $37,678.30. In July of last year the receipts from customs were $18,000.00, and the internal revenue receipts, $27,500.00, while the expenditures were $10,000.00, leaving a surplus of $35,500.00. The total receipts for July 1901 were $44,591.11, as against $45,500.00 for July 1900. The surplus last month is more noteworthy from the fact that the daily purchase of bonds by the Secretary of the Treasury has been continued, and the Treasury vaults yesterday than is possessed by any other department in the world. The grand total was $39,527.33.

DEATH OF CHARLES A. SCHOTT.

A Scientist of the Coast Survey Succumbs to Brain Disease.

Charles A. Schott, Assistant Scientist of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, and one of this city's most prominent men, died at his home, 1010 First Street southwest, shortly after 11 o'clock last night. Mr. Schott was seventy-five years of age and had been ill for five months. He was a native of New York, and had been in the United States for many years. He was a member of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, and had been in the service of the United States for many years. He was a man of great ability and was highly respected by his colleagues and the public. His death is a great loss to the United States.

THE HESSLER INFANT'S DEATH.

A Physician's Refusal to Render Aid Commented Upon.

Coroner Nevitt has viewed the remains of Francis Hessler, the infant son of Frank Hessler, a carpenter, who died on board a river steamer while coming to New York from Philadelphia. The child was found floating in the river. A certificate of death from natural causes was granted and the body is to be buried in the city. The authorities are acquainted with the facts in the case, but no action is anticipated. It is urged that humane reasons alone should have dictated a different course on the part of the physician in question and that the matter of a license should not have been considered for a moment.

DIARRHOEA QUICKLY CURED.

"Mr. Jacob Richman came into our store some time ago suffering with diarrhoea so badly that he could not get on his feet. He had been under the doctor's treatment for eight or ten days, but without success. He had tried all kinds of remedies, but nothing would do him any good. He was very weak and had lost a great deal of weight. He was very anxious to get well, and he was very grateful to us for what we had done for him. He had been in our store for some time, and he was very friendly to us. He was very kind to us, and we were very kind to him. He was very good to us, and we were very good to him.
